About our Dance Troupe

The Fairfax Chinese Dance Troupe is a non-profit, amateur group, with the purpose of sharing Chinese art and culture with the general public and the Chinese American generations growing up in the U.S. Dancers consist of students of all ages from the Greater Washington, D.C. metropolitan area, and Delaware. The troupe was established by Chin-Siu Lee Choi in 1988 with the encouragement and support from the Chinese-American community. Under the direction of Mrs. Choi and her two daughters, Amy and Stella, the troupe has developed a diverse circle of audiences and supporters. The troupe has performed on Capitol Hill, at The Kennedy Center Open House Arts Festival, Millennium Stage, The National Theatre, The Kimmel Center, for reunions of US 14th Air Force Assoc.- Flying Tigers, the FBI, Cherry Blossom Parade, Longwood Garden, Chinese New Year celebrations, Asian Pacific American Heritage Festivals, and various festivals throughout the city.

Other notable performances include MCI Center grand opening, Millennium Celebration on The National Mall, Formosa Dance Tour 2000, I-Lan International Children's Folklore and Folkgame Festival, 2004 International Dance Festival in Grenada, and Trinidad Dance Tour. The troupe also performs for charitable events, such as the Red Cross, National Race for the Cure, local churches, nursing homes, as well as schools and universities. All performances have been well received by the audience.
